

Applications are now being accepted for:

VERMONT STATE COLLEGES SYSTEM
STUDENT ASSOCIATION
LEADERSHIP SCHOLARSHIP

*Up to $1,000 awarded per VSCS institution***

The Vermont State Colleges Student Association (VSCSA) is an organization made up of all students enrolled in any of the Vermont State Colleges: Northern Vermont University (Johnson & Lyndon), Castleton University, Vermont Technical, and Community College of Vermont. The purpose of the organization is to foster unity between the students and the four institutions of higher education, to represent and advocate for the rights and interests of the students, and to provide information about student education issues.

Leadership Scholarship Requirements:

1. Applicants must be attending one of the Vermont State Colleges during the 2018-2019 academic year and be returning for 2019-2020 (scholarships awarded for the fall semester of 2019).
2. Applicants must hold a minimum 2.5 grade point average.
3. Applicants must complete an official VSCSA Leadership Scholarship application. A complete application packet will include:
  - A complete application
  - 1 Letter of Reference, including contact information, which document the applicant's college and community leadership experience
  - An essay from 250-500 words describing the importance of student leadership (applications may not be hand-written).

*Applications missing any of the required elements will NOT be considered.***

The complete application must be postmarked no later than April 19, 2019.
